The "R's" of Advent: Repentance
Matthew 3: 1-13

One of the incredible things about John the Baptist is that he attracted great crowds by talking about the universal need to repent, something few people today find necessary. The whole topic of repentance is troublesome, as it forces us to deal with another uncomfortable subject - sin. The truth is that repentance, sin, and preparation for the coming of Jesus Christ, which is the primary focus of Advent, are linked together much like the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. It is impossible to grasp any one of them without knowledge and understanding of the other two.

- The _____ of God requires a _____.
- Repent means to turn away from ____ and turn towards _____.
- Repentance leads to _____.

For Prayer requests, please fill out a blue or yellow card in the pew.

*Let there be joy in our laughter, love in our thoughts, hope in

...peace in our hearts.

We have a Christmas tree on display at the Davis Center in Millcreek Park! Please join in making cards to hand out - our goal is to give away 300 Christmas cards. We are also in need of used Christmas cards to recycle into beautiful ornaments. The cards can be left at the church office. Thank you for your help!

Please visit the display - it is a free event and the trees are beautiful!
