Water, Spirit and Fire

Acts 8:4-17

What does Scripture teach us about baptism? It would take us many weeks to find answers to that question, and we would still need more time. A Biblical understanding of baptism is diverse and heavily influenced by denominational teaching. To add to the confusion, the Scriptures speak of at least three different kinds of baptisms. One thing that most Christians have historically agreed upon is that the Bible teaches that baptism is a sign of a cleansing of sin that marks the beginning of a new life in Christ.

- Baptism is not a substitute for _____ and _____.
- The power to avoid sin comes when we are baptized with the _____.
- God is at work in a mighty way during baptism, and our _____ begins afterwards.
