Merit, Motive and a Moneybag
John 12: 1-8

Jesus was a wanted man, on the run from the keepers of the law for a terrible crime that He committed a few days earlier. The gruesome details are found in John 11:38-44. We see there that Jesus was wanted not for murdering a man, but for doing just the opposite; bringing life to one who was dead. Some two thousand years later, that has not changed. Jesus is still wanted to bring life to the dead!

- Messiah comes from a Hebrew word that means _____ one.
- Before _____ we should consider our _____ for doing so.
- _____ matters more to God than _____.
